Max is the coolest little pony ever. Anybody can ride him, he has carried toddlers loose in the round pen and been used in a lesson program teaching adults how to canter. We have used him working the flag, to roping the calf sled, to team penning. This dude can do it all. He is the same every single day. He has a mane and tail that is to die for! Don't miss this guy!

HAPPYS SIETO 73

Mr. Ed is a gelding everyone can appreciate, both to look at and to ride. He is extremely broke in the bridle and has all the user-friendly buttons you could ask for. Mr. Ed was bred and raised on the legendary Haythorn Ranch in NE where he got his start in life being an everyday ranch horse and was used for things such as branding, shipping, gathering, starting colts, and more. This gelding has a mile-long resume for outside work, but he shines just as bright in the arena as well.

From trail classes to ranch horse classes, get ready to bring home the ribbons! This gelding's ability to tackle different obstacles, mindfulness of where he places his feet, and how easy he is to mauer makes him a great candidate for the trail classes, and his natural cadence, effortless and smooth transitions, +1 gaits, cow sense, and impeccable handle will get all of the judges looking if were to enter in any ranch horse class. Mr. Ed's versatility both in the arena and out isn't just a fluke. His sire, Nu Cash Cow, sired many reined cow horse champions and is by the NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity World Champion and Leading Sire, Nu Cash, out of Miss Busy Body who is by World Show Qualifier, Superior earner in reining, heading, and heeling, and sire of 5 World Champions, Tuf N Busy. His dam, Daisy Maid, boasts of foundation breeding that the Haythorn Ranch's program has been built around. She is by Eddie Eighty, one of the Haythorn's prized stallions that produced earners in multiple events, including the NRCHA, NCHA, heading, heeling, and ranch horse competitions. Mr. Ed will ride quietly on a loose rein with a level head, can easily be bridled up to be ridden collected, and will even ride around with no bridle both in the arena and outside. He will pick up both leads from a walk, side pass both directions, and can be turned around on the forehead or on his hind end. He has been many miles down state trails, ridden through booming city locations, used to carry a flag, has been around ATVS, seen various wildlife, and has even had to walk a dog back to the ranch that decided the journey home was just too far. Mr. Ed is a gorgeous, phenomenally broke, and bred to-the-nines horse that brings so much to the table that everyone can appreciate a piece of him no matter what you do!

Tears are going to flow for this one. Silver has been part of our family and Amy's personal show horse for the last year. We have literally hauled him to countless venues and he has always been the perfect gentleman everywhere he's ever been. He stands a little over 15 hands and is double registered AQHA/APHA. He is a beautiful mover and is a triple threat in all 3 Ranch Classes if you're looking for a show horse, but something also to go trail ride and catch attention! Silver always saddles up extremely gentle and is 100% safe for any and all levels. He has a big pretty extended trot to him as well as a big stop and lots of turn. He's soft in his face, moves off your legs, and goes through all the trail obstacles with ease. Silver has NEVER had any soundness issues nor has he ever been injected or taken a lame step. He is an old soul and new things or experiences do not rattle him. If you're in the serious market for a once in a lifetime horse, call Shane@ (940)765-7177 with any questions. Fiona was a PMU foal I got her at 4 WEEKS old. She was fed every 3 hrs faithfully for the first 4 months of her life..I weaned her at 5 months. I had a DNA on her and she is an Argentine Criollo and half Tennessee Walker! She is desensitized to the hilt, loads super easy, crossties. I threw a saddle on her for the first time and she didn't even flinch. She has been with me for 5 yrs and is in my pocket. Due to an extreme medical condition is the only reason I even considered selling this mare. She is almost the bottom of pecking order, super quiet and very fast learner. She is a clean slate. No one has ever been on her so train her your way even tho she loves to run and her lope is to die for. If you want a horse that wants to be with you alot she is your girl. Whiskey is a 6 year old grade gelding that's been used dayworking , sorting cattle in the pens and has been roped on in the pasture tied hard . This horse has absolutely no buck , he can be put up for a month and not rode and still ride off with no fear of bucking . His only quirk if any is he's timid around new people when first catching him and tying him out , Once he gains your trust though he is a sweet boy and a pleasure to be around . He is very partial to my 14 year old daughter and is very trusting with the kids , he will come to her in a 100 acres .

We have ponied little kids on him, taken him down trails, road ridden, and pushed cows on the ranch. He does wear front shoes as he is naturally hip high. Confident in his gaits. Knows his leads rolls back correctly and a dang good stop when sliders are on. This is a point and shoot gelding. Ready to hit your local ranch shows.

10yr Shetland 11.2 Gelding
Pony
Consigned By: KB Rockin Ranch

Ponies like Raisin are hard to come by! Raisin is the easiest pony to have around the farm. Raisin's ground manners are excellent, he stands perfect for grooming, bathing, vet, and farrier work. Raisin leads like a puppy, loads like a pro, and will stand tied or cross tied all day! Raisin gets along with any herd and is easy to catch out of the pasture. Raisin has perfect bare feet and it doesn't take much to keep him looking so cute! Despite his small size Raisin is broke to ride and has even been schooled over fences. Raisin is a safe but forward ride suitable for any good riding kid who wants a one of a kind pony to have fun with! Don't miss out on this little guy, he would be an incredible addition to any farm or lesson program.
